Dr. [redacted]

Dear Dr. [redacted]

In the months since my last mailing to you (June 1981), the National Foreign Assessment Center has produced only one unclassified report and an unclassified wall chart on Cuba. Both are enclosed and I hope they will be of use to you.

It may be of interest to you to know that you are one of only a few individuals to continue to receive complimentary copies of our unclassified reports. This follows a decision last summer that distribution from my office would, hence forth, be limited to consultants to the Agency and to those teaching at service schools, such as the National War College or West Point. The unclassified reports will continue to be available to the public, including academicians, of course, but only through purchase from government distribution points.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you a happy holiday season.

Sincerely yours,

Coordinator for Academic Relations
